4. Armies of India and America will exercise near China border

Tension has been going on between India and China for a long time, many times the armies of both the countries have come face to face on the border and violent clashes have also been seen. The Chinese army has always been in aggressive mode on the LAC, which is also answered by the Indian Army. Now such news is coming out that China may feel chilly again. The armies of India and America are going to conduct a high-altitude military exercise in Auli, Uttarakhand, close to the LAC this month. This is the 15th time of joint exercise between the armies of India and America.

There is an annual military exercise between the armies of India and America, which is known as 'Yudh Abhyas'. One year this exercise is done in India and one year in America. Last year this exercise was done in Alaska, USA. That is why this year this exercise is going to be held in India. This military exercise will be held from November 15 to December 2.

Now even before the friendship of America and India, China remains stunned, in such a situation, this military exercise is a big message for it. Auli of Uttarakhand is at an altitude of about 10 thousand feet and the Line of Control (LAC) is at a distance of about 100 kilometers from here. The LAC adjacent to Uttarakhand is part of the Central Sector of the Indian Army. Here the Barohti area of the LAC has been disputed between India and China for a long time. During the last two years, when there was a tussle between the armies of the two countries in eastern Ladakh, there were frequent reports of increasing military activities of China in this area too. This is the reason why the military exercise between India and America in the month of October becomes very important.
