SNAD JUDGEMENT

Every birth or death should not be seen as success or failure of project cheetah.

➤ What the editorial is all about?

Recently one of cheetah named DAKSHA died in Kuno National Park(KNP). The editorial talks about India's Project cheetah sustainable living in India by next decade. Each year some cheetahs will be brought from Africa and relocated in India.

Till now 20 cheetah has been brought, 8 from Namibia and 12 from South Africa. 3 out of 20 has died. DAKSHA recently died of injuries during mating. India had promoted bringing of cheetah's very heavily and it took few years to from planning to actually implementing it.

➤ Challenges for cheetah Program and way ahead

Some experts tell that Kuno National park is inadequate for 20 cheetah and wider peace is needed.

Apart from consultation with experts in Namibia and South Africa is needed. To avoid any poaching there is need to participate local communities in this. One need not to look the project as failure with few deaths.
