Bring back Kohinoor from the UK parliamentary panel notes in its report

Parliamentary Panel last Monday adopted a report "Heritage theft –the illegal trade in Indian antiquities and the challenges in retrieving and safeguarding our tangible culture heritage". The panel urged Ministry of culture to "follow global pratia and make all efforts to ensure precious historical artifact's are returned". Cultural ministry officials said the committee that while the efforts were being made to bring stolen artifact. The issue with KOHINOOR is continue as it was gifted to British in 1849.

In a affidavit in SC in 2016, cultural ministry said that diamond cannot be reclaimed as it was given as a gift.

However in face of story public outrage it backtracked and said that it was hopeful with rgards to KOHINOOR return to INDIA.

KOHINOOR----- it is one of the largest cut diamond in the world.Nadir shah in its 1740 invasion looted it. Later it was with maharaja Duleep Singh, who gave it to british in 1849.

Kohinoor used to be in crown of Queen Elizabeth II. But recent coronation of king George and Camilla saw Kohinoor being replaced by some other gem.

It is thought that it was done because of fear of public resetment

EDITORIAL 1

TWO TO TANGO

THE CONGRES MUST SHOW THE SUCCESS OF ITS INCLUSIVE VISION IN KARNATAKA.

WHAT IS EDITORIAL IS ALL ABOUT?

The editorial talks about formation of govt. in Karnataka with question of who will be CM resolved, its time to focus on promises it had made.

About Karnataka new CM

M. Siddharamiah will be the CM of Karnataka. He was at this position 5 years back. DK Shiv Kumar who is Karnataka Congress chief was also a valid contender for CM post but will be Deputy CM now. He will hold Karnataka Congress chief post as well. Holding two posts is not common in Congress but for DK Shiv Kumar it has been agreed. The choosing of CM shows a big role of Mallikarjun Kharge in Congress.

Way ahead

Karnataka govt should look into implementing welfare measures.

Also Congress should work with Karnataka model ahead.
