Useful first Step

➤ Issues behind violence in Manipur are Knotly but truth telling should help.

What the editorial is all about ?

Home Minister Amit Shah talked about formation of a 3 member commission during his Manipur's visit. There are many signs that shows that the distrust between the two communities is quite wide and thorny issues need to be addressed to tackle the crises.

About Home Minister's visit to Manipur?

HM Amit Shah met members of two communities. He told to form a panel of 3 member to investigate causes and give solution to ethnic problem in Manipur.

Despite Mr. Shah's visit violence was occurring, also only 18% of the looted weapons had been returned. These tell volumes of distrust between two communities. Holding two communities only because of Paramilitary presence is not a permanent solution. Thorny issues need to be addressed.

➤ What are thorny issues between two countries.

- Many among Kukis (Naga) claim that Meitie's demand for ST status is Unjustified.

- Meitie has there own grievances, like they can not buy and in Hill areas.
- Kukis has encroached in forest areas.

There issues can only be solved in a peaceful environment, and the commission work will matter a lot in this regard.
